[JUNE, MDCCLXXII.] THE [NUMB. 341.]

SOUTH-CAROLINA AND COUNTRY GAZETTE; JOURNAL.

Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic.

TUESDAY, JUNE 9, 1772.

LONDON, MARCH 16.

ORDERS are given for a detachment of the Royal regiment of Artillery to be in readineſs to embark for the Iſlands of Guernſey and Jerſey at the firſt notice.

His Majeſty's ſloop Savage, at Portſmouth, is put into commiſſion, and Capt. Archibald Dickſon appointed to the command of her.

Lieutenant Howorth is appointed one of the Lieutenants of the Lenox of 74 guns, at Portſmouth, in the room of Lieutenant Walton.

MARCH 17. At this very inſtant, when the King is endeavouring to enſlave the royal family, by a bill the moſt hateful, deſpotic, and deteſtable that ever was ſeen or heard of in any civilized country, the Prince of Wales is this night to be brought forth as an independent Prince. He is to appear at the opera in his own box, and with his own family.

Cheat the deluded Princes with a ſhew
Of Liberty, which yet they ne'er muſt taſte of.

The Duke of Glouceſter's conſent to the preſent infamous royal marriage bill, has been obtained by means not the moſt honourable.

Sunday noon died, in Red Lion-ſtreet, Captain Bond, late Commander of his Majeſty's ſhip the Gibraltar, on the American ſtation. A humane, worthy man, and a good officer.

MARCH 18. Letters from Paris ſay, that a dangerous inſurrection has happened in the province of Brittany, and that a body of troops have been ordered to march there to ſuppreſs it.

On Friday next a beautiful new monument will be opened in Weſtminſter-abbey, to the memory of the late General Wolfe; the doors are ordered to be ſhut till two o'clock, on account of his Majeſty being expected there to view it.

MARCH 19. Monday laſt Mr. Burke very pathetically deſcribed the miſchiefs which the Royal Marriage Bill muſt one day bring upon the nation; and very finely urged the inhumanity of it; the unfeelingneſs of the parent who could aſk it; and very emphatically concluded with theſe words, but the framer of this bill has no children! the whole Houſe was ſtruck with the beauty of the climax. It obviouſly alluded to Lord Mansfield; who has been moſt juſtly called, "the great canker-worm of the ſtate."

A very conſiderable fund has been eſtabliſhed by the Eaſt-India Company, in the nature of Chelſea Hoſpital, for penſioning and relieving the officers and ſoldiers who have become diſabled in their ſervice, and the widows of officers and ſoldiers who die in it. And this charity, we hear, not only comprehends the widows of ſuch officers as may henceforward die in the ſervice, but is extended to the widows of officers who died in the Company's ſervice abroad before this fund was inſtituted, which has proved a very ſeaſonable and comfortable relief to many ſuch neceſſitous widows.

The diſturbances raiſed by the Levellers in Ireland are become ſo ſerious, that a very conſiderable reinforcement, it is ſaid, will be immediately ſent from Scotland, to aſſiſt in reſtoring peace to that kingdom.

MARCH 21. There were upwards of 500 gentlemen and ladies at the Lord Mayor's rout laſt Wedneſday night, among them many perſons of diſtinction. The ball was opened at nine o'clock by Mr. Naſh, the Lord Mayor's ſon, and Mrs. Trecothick, who appeared as Lady Mayoreſs. The dancing continued till about half an hour paſt twelve; and before two all the company had left the Manſion-Houſe. The whole was conducted with great regularity.

It is ſaid, the Lord Mayor will call a Court of Common Council, if requeſted, to give the Corporation of this city an opportunity to ſubſcribe, if they ſhould think it prudent, to the aſſociation for reducing the exorbitant price of butchers meat; but if the city does not ſubſcribe, we can ſee no reaſon why the opulent companies ſhould delay ſo laudable an action, as it certainly muſt contribute to the relief of the poor.---It is hoped thoſe gentlemen who intend to aſſiſt the above undertaking by their ſubſcriptions, will loſe no time in doing it, that ſome effectual ſtep may be taken to relieve the poor.

Yeſterday books of ſubſcription were left at the Chapter, New Lloyd's, and Carolina Coffee-houſes, for raiſing one thouſand guineas; to give a bounty of ten pounds per month to all Britiſh fiſhing veſſels that ſhall be employed on the Turbot fiſhery, 1772, according to the directions agreed on by the committee for carrying the ſame into execution. This important affair recommends itſelf to the public; the Dutch having taken that trade to themſelves, at a time when many of our fiſhing veſſels are obliged to lay up for want of money to buy the neceſſary tackling for ſuch an undertaking. The Dutch take from us upwards of ſixty thouſand pounds annually for turbot; to prevent any impoſition on the public, Lieutenant Dyſon will (with leave from the Admiralty) go out with the veſſels that ſhall receive the bounty.---Above fifty guineas were ſubſcribed immediately in Mr. Dyſon's book; the Lord Mayor has ſubſcribed in the book at New Lloyd's.

The Carolina, M'Williams, from North-Carolina, with tar, &c. that run on ſhore on the Shingles the 9th inſt. was got off the 17th, and was carried into Cowes harbour, where the cargo muſt be all landed, the ſhip having received conſiderable damage.

Though the bill for regulating the marriages of the Royal Family ſhould be paſſed into a law, there is great reaſon to believe it would be no more regarded by the people of England, than if a law was made for cancelling and annulling every article of Magna Charta. It would be a law ſo notoriouſly carried through the influence of the crown, of ſo deſpotic a nature, and ſo contrary to the ancient laws and conſtitution of the kingdom, that the people would not think themſelves bound to obey it. Suppoſing his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland ſhould leave iſſue by his preſent marriage; and ſuppoſing, becauſe it is not impoſſible to happen, that the iſſue of our moſt gracious Sovereign ſhould be extinct, and the crown ſhould deſcend, according to the ancient laws and cuſtoms of this country, to the iſſue of the Duke of Cumberland, is it to be believed, that the people of England would ſet aſide ſuch iſſue, on account of an act of parliament, paſſed by ſuch undue influence, and in ſo arbitrary a manner? Would Engliſhmen be of opinion, that his Royal Highneſs's marrying an Engliſh woman, was a good reaſon for depriving his iſſue of the crown? It is unſuppoſeable.

Some new impoſts are talked of to be laid on America, before the riſing of the Parliament.

It is confidently aſſerted, that a patent is preparing to appoint the Solicitor General Lord High Chancellor of England.

MARCH 23. Some letters from Paris mention that private accounts have been received there of the death of the Queen of Portugal.

The Cadets at Woolwich are ſoon to be increaſed from 48 to 100 as in time of war.

Lately died at Utrecht, one Margaret Andree, aged 112 years.

MARCH 24. Letters by yeſterday's Holland mail adviſe, that the reigning Duke of Saxe Gotha, brother of the late Princeſs Dowager of Wales, died the 10th inſtant at Friedenſtein, after an illneſs of twelve days, in the 73d year of his age.

A letter from Tunis, dated January 1, ſays, "A French Captain who arrived here yeſterday, ſays, that an Engliſh ſhip was loſt off the iſle of Candia, the crew of which, after having reached the ſhore in the boat, were upon the point of being murdered by the inhabitants, who took them for Ruſſians; but the French Conſul came to their relief juſt in time, and claimed them from the Pacha, who reſtored them after great heſitation."

The four diviſions of his Majeſty's marine forces, at Plymouth, Portſmouth, Sheerneſs, and Chatham, were laſt week reduced to 48 men per company.

Mr. Francis has reſigned his place in the War Office.

Dr. Nowel, in his ſermon, preached before the Houſe of Commons on the 30th of January laſt, ſays, that his preſent Majeſty poſſeſſes all the royal virtues of Charles the Firſt: And whoever hath in the leaſt attended to and conſidered the many ſtretches of the prerogative, during the preſent reign, will agree, that what Dr. Nowel hath aſſerted is very juſt. Nay, indeed, the Doctor might have given his preſent Majeſty the preference; for the Bill for regulating the marriages of the Royal Family, is ſuch a prodigious ſtretch of the prerogative as was never attempted even by Charles the Firſt; for it ſets aſide the ancient laws of this land, annuls legal marriages, robs ſubjects of their natural rights, puts it in the power of his Majeſty to alter the ſucceſſion to the Crown, and makes his people liable to ſuffer for high treaſon, in ſuch caſes as are altogether vague and uncertain.---- How greatly is this nation indebted to Lord Mansfield!

Roſe Fuller, Eſq; made a motion to add a clauſe to the royal marriage bill, making the act expire in three years after the demiſe of the crown, when the numbers were 150 againſt 132.

The Duke of Holſtein Gottorp, uncle to the King of Denmark, is expected in London very ſoon; and it is ſaid apartments in Carlton-Houſe are ordered to be fitted up for him.

The report of the Ducheſs of Cumberland's pregnancy is premature.

This morning the Earl of Bute attended at the Queen's palace, where he breakfaſted, and afterwards had a long conference with his Majeſty.

A new invention has lately been diſcovered at Leith, in Scotland, for working black ſilk lace, or white thread lace, in a loom, to imitate any pattern whatever; and the lace done in this way, looks full as well as if ſewed, and comes much cheaper: it is done of any breadth from three inches to three quarters of a yard wide. The ſame manufacturer has alſo made an improvement on carpets, to imitate any figures that may be drawn or painted on paper, and much cheaper than ſuch carpets have been ſold for in any part of the kingdom. Several of the nobility and gentry have viewed theſe works, and expreſſed their ſatisfaction at the ingenuity of Mr. Brotherſtone, the inventor, who, we hope, will meet with that encouragement he ſo juſtly merits.

MARCH 25. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to confer on the Right Hon. Lord North the Blue Ribbon, vacant by the death of the Duke of Saxe Gotha.

It is ſaid, that for the greater convenience of correſpondence, the Weſt-India packet boats will be ordered for the future to touch at the iſland of Madera, on their outward paſſage, and the returns from thence are to come to England in the Liſbon packet.

Letters from Seville mention, that as the following maſters were going on board their ſhips in one boat, they were by the violence of the current unfortunately drowned, viz. Captain Langer, of the Charming Sally; Captain Kennedy, of the Good Intent; and Captain Harvey, of the Prince Edward.

Extract of a letter from Goſport, March 22.

"It is confidently reported here, that Admiral Pye will ſuperſede Admiral Rodney at Jamaica, and that the Egmont which came out of dock yeſterday, is the ſhip he is to hoiſt his flag on board of."

"The workmen have orders to carry on the building for a new powder magazine at the Hardway near Goſport, as a ſtop had been put to it during the winter ſeaſon. It is built here as being thought much leſs dangerous than at the garriſon."

From Paris, March 2, they write, that the caſhier of the French Eaſt-India Company, at Port l'Orient, had decamped, with a million of French livres, but before he could effect his eſcape to London he was taken priſoner, and conducted to the caſtle of St. Louis. By the ſame channel we are adviſed, that Monſieur Boynes had formed a new regulation for the French navy, agreeable to which the whole navy is diſtributed into eight ſquadrons under eight departments; each ſquadron is to conſiſt of eight ſhips, and to be commanded by an Admiral; who is to have the rank of Lieutenant Colonel of a regiment; and each ſhip of war is to have its own Captain, and alſo a company of marines; the officers of the marines are alſo conſtantly to reſide at their reſpective departments. By this regulation the King's frigates are not to be commanded by officers of higher rank than that of a Lieutenant.

MARCH 26. On Monday, at three o'clock, Welbore Ellis, Eſq; reported to the Houſe the amendments of the Committee to the Royal Marriage Bill, which were agreed to.

The motion made by Roſe Fuller, Eſq; on Monday, was, to inſert a clauſe, that the Royal Marriage Act ſhould continue in force for and during the reign of his preſent Majeſty, and for three years after his demiſe, and no longer.---But after a ſhort debate, which laſted till half paſt ſix o'clock, the queſtion was put that this clauſe be made a part of the bill, when the Houſe dividing, there appeared Ayes 132, Noes 150; ſo that the clauſe was rejected by a majority of only 18. As ſoon as the above diviſion was over, ſeveral of the minority came in, being locked out at the time of the diviſion, which was the means of loſing the clauſe. Colonel Luttrell and his father divided with the minority. As there was a ſeeming inconſiſtence in the above motion, the oppoſition did not ſeem to exert themſelves ſo warmly in favour of it as they had done upon former occaſions. Lord North urged, as did his friends, that there was a tendency in this motion which was inconſiſtent with paſſing the Bill at all: That, if it was paſſed, it muſt be ſuffered to go through, free of every exception, clog, and incumbrance whatever; and that if the ſpirit of the Bill ſeemed to future Parliaments to operate too tyrannically with reſpect to the perſons whom it concerned, the wiſdom of ſuch Parliaments, no doubt, would direct them, and urge them, to repeal it.

Many gentlemen oppoſed the principal and particular clauſes of the Bill; Mr. Sawbridge in particular ſaid it was "a Bill to gratify the rancour of a monſter, and the malice of a man." No gentleman in adminiſtration defended the Bill, but truſted to the Book of Numbers. At ſix o'clock the Houſe divided, when there appeared to be 168 for its paſſing, 115 againſt it. Sir Joſeph Mawbey moved to correct the title of the act, and to make it coextenſive with its contents by adding theſe words, "AN ACT FOR ENLARGING AND EXTENDING THE "PREROGATIVE OF THE CROWN, AND FOR THE EN-"COURAGEMENT OF ADULTERY AND FORNICATION, "UNDER THE PRETENCE OF" regulating the Marriages of the Royal Family; but this was objected to, and the latter words continue to form the title.

The Royal Marriage Bill has now paſſed our Moſt Faithful Commons, in the unlimited extent it was drawn by Lord Mansfield; ſo that every deſcendant of our now more-than-ever-to-be lamented Sovereign George the Second is in vaſſallage and ſlavery; and the Kings of this limited monarchy are erected into family tyrants, to trample upon the laws of nature and religion. One reſource of comfort ſtill remains,---the reflection that the arbitrary acts of a deſpotic Henry were all repealed by his beneficent ſon King Edward the Sixth.

The Royal Marriage Bill has been paſſed at the expence of two Britiſh Baronies, five Iriſh ditto, one advancement from ditto to an Iriſh Earldom, one Blue Ribbon, three Red ones, one Baronetage, there reverſionary preſent places, twenty-five thouſand pounds in occaſional gratuities, beſides innumerable promiſes of lottery tickets. In ſo very intereſting and conſtitutional a light is this Bill ſeen by our worthy repreſentatives!

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, March 20.

"They write from Cadiz, that though an order was publiſhed ſome time ago, that no man of war of any nation whatever ſhould put into any of the ports of Spain, the execution of which was very rigorouſly obſerved, a French man of war had nevertheleſs put in there not long ſince, to repair ſome damage ſhe had received in a ſtorm; that ſome of their officers, during their ſtay there, engaged in a contraband trade, in conſequence of which they were taken priſoners; that the commander of the French man of war had leave to ſail, but refuſed to go without his officers, and that a courier was ſent to Madrid for further inſtructions with reſpect to this affair.

"Mr. Yvois, receiver of the public revenues at Rotterdam, and a conſiderable merchant there, has juſt failed for 250,000 guilders, and it is ſaid he is retired to France."

This day will be iſſued out at the Pay-Office, Whitehall, thirty days ſubſiſtance to his Majeſty's land forces, from the 26th inſt. to the 24th of April following, both days inclusive; alſo 61 days ſtoppages to his Majeſty's forces abroad to the ſame time.

Yeſterday on caſting up the ſums ſubſcribed for reducing the price of butchers meat, they amounted to 6560l.

The Duke of Ancaſter, and the Earl of Holderneſſe, are much diſpleaſed that the vacant Blue Ribbon is to be given to Lord North in preference to either of them.

Since the time of Sir Robert Walpole there has not appeared a Blue Ribbon in the Houſe of Commons; but before that Miniſter's time, it was not uncommon to ſee one; and there have been inſtances of three and four at once.

A motion has been made in the Houſe of Lords in Ireland, which has been ſeconded and carried, to deſire the Lord Chancellor of that kingdom, to write to the Lord Chancellor here, in the name of the Lords, to furniſh them with all the papers and examinations, relative to the late Angleſea cauſe, as their Lordſhips are determined (on a ſtrong ſuppoſition of not being properly informed, in reſpect to the whole of the buſineſs) to retry the preſent Lord Valentia's title to his Iriſh peerage.---An inſtance of ſuch a proceeding has never been known before.

The ſpirit of the times, in reſpect to matrimony, may very well be collected from the number of divorces that are now actually before the Lords, and in agitation; as a correſpondent, who has an opportunity of knowing, aſſures us, there are no leſs than fifty-ſix in all.

Yeſterday morning, by order of his Majeſty, Admirals Howe, Keppel, Brett, and Sir Edward Hawke, had the honour of a conference at Buckingham houſe. And yeſterday morning orders were ſent down to Portſmouth for the Carysfort frigate, Captain William Hay, to be got ready to ſail with all poſſible ſpeed with diſpatches for Admiral Rodney at Jamaica.

Laſt Tueſday arrived at Spithead his Majeſty's ſhip the Venus, Capt. Balfour, expreſs from the Mediterranean.

Yeſterday morning the Right Hon. the Earl of Bute ſet out from his houſe in South-Audley-ſtreet for Dover, in order to embark there for France.

From the frequent couriers that paſs between the Courts of London, Madrid, Verſailles and the Hague, our politicians prognoſticate a freſh rupture in Europe.

The Government is preparing to ſend out Major Rogers, with proper aſſiſtants, in purſuit of the North-Weſt paſſage; the Lords of Trade have reported in favour of the meaſure, and it now lies at the Treaſury-Board, that a proper eſtimate may be made of the expence.

MARCH 27. A letter from Dublin, March 17, ſays, "The uncommonly atrocious actions of the rioters in the North of Ireland obliged the Houſe of Commons to commit, report, and paſs a bill againſt the rioters in one day; an inſtance of diſpatch to which there is no precedent!"

Extract of a letter from Prague, March 18.

"The orders given by his Imperial Majeſty for furniſhing proviſions for this city, have been executed with great expedition. Already ſo much corn, and other proviſions, are arrived here, that the price is fallen two thirds of what it was, and will be much lower ſoon. We hear that the Emperor has ordered 700 or 800 tons of rice, 9000 or 4000 quintals of pulſe, to be bought at Trieſte, which are to be ſent to Lubeck, from whence they are to be forwarded to this kingdom. Some corn is alſo coming from Sclavonia, ſo that we hope the horrors of famine will be ſpeedily ſucceeded by plenty."

A Dutch man of war of 50 guns is aſhore upon the ſands, about a mile and a half off Calais.

MARCH 5. On Thurſday night letters were received from Dr. Jebb, at Rome, which give an account, that his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter was quite reſtored to a good ſtate of health, that he intended to ſet out for England in a few days, and that he hoped to be in town by the middle of April.

Extract of a letter from Copenhagen, March 14.

"Laſt Monday and Thurſday the Commiſſioners charged with carrying on the proſecutions againſt the State Priſoners, met at the Caſtle of Chriſtianſborgh, and examined Count Struenſee. The principal inhabitants in theſe environs are come to a reſolution to erect a magnificent monument to perpetuate the memory of the late worthy Count Bernſtorf, Miniſter of State, who attended his Majeſty on his tour to England and France.

"The horſe guards which was laſt year diſbanded, is again to be engaged, and is to conſiſt of four ſquadrons, each ſquadron to contain 60 horſe; Count Charles de Ahlfeld is to be their commander in chief. The accounts from Norway are very melancholy; proviſions of all kinds are ſo ſcarce there, that the inhabitants are forced even to make bread of the bark of trees, however, as ſoon as the ice is broke, the regency will ſend them aſſiſtance."

Extract of a Letter from Berlin, March 15.

"A Major of Huſſars belonging to Colonel Ziethen's regiment, brought an aga of the Janiſſaries to our Sovereign, who was ſent by General Field Marſhal Count Romanzow, as a preſent. He was taken priſoner by the Ruſſians, and defended himſelf in an extraordinary manner. When he came before his Majeſty at Potſdam, he was aſked by the King if he wore a ſword; he replied, "Gracious Sovereign, I am now a ſlave, and am not permitted to wear one;" whereupon his Majeſty declared him immediately free, and made him a preſent of a fine ſabre: He is kept here at the King's expence, and as he deſired he might be ſent ſafe to his country again, the King ordered 1800 dollars to defray the expence of his journey home. He is upwards of ſix feet high, ſpeaks the Italian language tolerably, is well verſed in the art of war, and defended himſelf in a redoubt againſt a ſuperior force of Ruſſians, till he was ſo much wounded he could fight no more."

Prince Erneſt of Mecklenburgh Strelitz will in a few days ſet out for Hanover, to be preſent at the general review of the troops of that Electorate, his Highneſs being Colonel of a regiment there.

General Scott loſt at one ſitting, very lately, upwards of ten thouſand pounds.

Sometime ago, Mr. B--th--y being at Almacks, (where ſeveral young men of faſhion were deep at play) he was retiring home to bed very early; upon which Lord C---le called out, "B-th-y, what are you going ſo ſoon?----Stay a little longer, and I will go with you."---Mr. B. however perſiſted in going.-----"Well then, returned the young Earl, will you go with me in a five hundred?"---Mr. B. agreed to this, gave Lord C-----e 250l. out of his pocket-book for his ſhare, and retired home.---Lord C---e was ſo ſucceſsful afterwards, that his Lordſhip's ſteward, the next morning, waited upon Mr. B--th--y, almoſt as ſoon as he was up, and paid him, as his moiety of the winnings, upwards of 1000l.

The Earl of C-------- after he had won, a few days ſince, 22,000l. paid debts to his ſeveral tradeſmen to upwards of ten thouſand pounds.---His Lordſhip then left two thouſand pounds with his Lady, and next morning ſet off for France, on a viſit to the Dowager Lady C------, his mother.

By a letter from Newry, which arrived yeſterday afternoon, we are aſſured, that the Hearts of Steel daily encreaſe, and that they were attacked near Crumlin, on the 23d of this inſtant, by part of General Strode's regiment of foot, and a body of the Yellow Horſe, with a party of the Royal Artillery, amounting in all to 560 men, whom the inſurgents defeated with conſiderable loſs, and afterwards deſtroyed two gentlemen's houſes on the eſtate of Lord Donnegal. Their number now is ſaid to be near 11,000 men, all proteſtants, and acquainted with the uſe of fire arms; a body much ſuperior to the military at preſent in that part of Ireland.

By the above letters we are aſſured, that a new claimant to the title of Earl of Angleſea, has ſtarted up in Dublin; his name is Richard Anneſley, and he has been proved to be the ſon of the late Earl, by Mrs. Salkeld, who that Nobleman married in the year 1743.

We are informed a ſociety of gentlemen intend, in a few days, to open a general ſubſcription for the purpoſe of giving premiums, to encourage the bringing of plenty of mackarel to Billingſgate, which, being ſet on foot ſo early, will, in all probability, anſwer the deſirable end of lowering the preſent exorbitant price of proviſions; as was the caſe four years ago, when mackarel were ſold ſo cheap, that fine veal went a begging at 2d. and 3d. halfpenny per pound.

It is ſaid that the ſum of 30000l. is now ſubſcribed at the Chapter and Lloyd's Coffee-houſes, to the plan for lowering the price of butchers meat.

The Corporation of Canterbury and Sandwich, have begun raiſing ſubſcriptions for reducing the price of proviſions.

The government of Ireland have at laſt gained over Lord Shannon to their intereſt. The terms are, a re-inſtation of offices, with an additional penſion. His apoſtaſiſm, however, is not yet announced, as he is tampering with his kindſman and colleague, Mr. Ponſonby, to bring him over on ſome ſuch terms.

The Speaker of the Houſe of Commons in Ireland, is to be made a Peer, and retire on a penſion.

The Earl of Loudon is appointed Preſident of the Court Martial to be held on Lieutenent General Strode.

The red ribbon is to be ſent out after Sir John Clark, who ſails as Commander in Chief to the Eaſt-Indies in about ten days time. The reaſon of inveſting him there with this order, is to conciliate the reſpect of the Nabob, as well as to give him an opportunity (as is uſual) of making the perſon inveſted a handſome preſent.

Conſiderable bets are propoſed at ſeveral coffee-houſes at the weſt end of the town, that a certain General at the head of the Ordnance, on account of his diſobedience to the late marriage act, will not ſmell powder officially the 4th of June next.

During the many debates on the marriage bill, Lord North was on his legs in reply to Mr. Burke oftener than upon any other occaſion; whilſt the miniſtry own this gentleman cut them out a good deal of work, the oppoſers of the bill pay every compliment to his ingenuity and oratory.

Sir Lucius O'Brien, in a late debate in the Iriſh Houſe of Commons, relative to a bill for the better regulation of the hoſpital for diſabled ſoldiers, after deſcribing the neceſſity of ſuch a comfortable ſanctuary in old age, concluded his deſcription very oppoſitely from the four following lines of Dr. Goldſmith's Deſerted Village:

"The broken ſoldier kindly bade to ſtay,
Sat by his fire, and talked the night away,
Wept o'er his wounds, or tales of ſorrow done,
Shoulder'd his crutch, and ſhew'd how fields were won."

MARCH 30. Letters from Ratiſbon mention that the Count de Colloredo, Biſhop of Gurk, was elected on the 13th of this month, Prince Archbiſhop of Saltzbourg.

The Stag man of war, Sir John Lindſay, from Madras, is arrived at Portſmouth, by whom there is advice that the Hector, Dublerian, from the Mauritius; the Lapwing, Gardener, from London; the Colebrook, Morris; and the Britannia, Sweethin, from ditto, are all arrived at the Cape; the Morſe (late Horne) and the Fanſborn, Hough, from London, are arrived at Bengal.

Captain Compton of the Vereſt Eaſt-Indiaman, which was loſt ſome time ago off the Iſle of France, and the reſt of the officers of that ſhip, are come home in the Stag man of war.

The Hector, a French Eaſt-Indiaman, ſuppoſed to have been loſt, is ſafe arrived at the Cape. Seventy per cent. inſurance was given on her.

Letters from Dublin, dated March 16, mention, that the Houſe of Commons ſat again that day on the revenue bill; and after very long debates the bill paſſed, 88 againſt 85. This act is made perpetual, though the patriots ſtrove hard to make it only for four years.

On Saturday laſt was laid the firſt ſtone of the new building for the Society of Arts, at the Adelphi, by Lord Romney.

MARCH 31. Yeſterday part of the baggage of Prince Erneſt of Mecklenburgh was ſent away from St. James's, to be put on board a ſhip in the river for Bremen.

A new writ is iſſued out for electing a Member for Milborne Port, in the room of the Earl of Caitherlough, deceaſed.

Alſo a new writ for electing a Member for Eaſt-Looe, in Cornwall, in the room of the late Richard Leigh, Eſq;

Mr. Skinner, King's Counſel, and Member for Woodſtock, is to ſucceed the late Taylor White, Eſq; as one of the Welch Judges; and Mr. Serjeant Forſter, Chief Juſtice of Ely, is to ſucceed the late Serjeant Leigh, as King's Serjeant at Law.

By advices from Madras of the 10th of October, our army was beſieging the capital of Tanjour, which was on the point of ſurrendering. This opulent province paid formerly a tribute to Mohammed Ali, Nabob of the Carnatic, but has of late been guarrantied againſt that Prince by Hyder Ali.

Hyder Ali, after the deciſive battle againſt him of laſt year, ſhut himſelf up in Sarangapatnam, where he is cloſely beſieged by the Mahrattoes.

The Emperor, Shaw Allum, diſguſted at the impolitic tyranny of the Eaſt-India Company, has thrown himſelf into the hands of the Mahrattoes, who have actually raiſed him to the Throne of Delhi.

The uſe to which the Mahrattoes wiſh to turn the Emperor, is to give them a firman for the three provinces of Bengal, Bahar, and Oriſſa. So that, under the colour of a grant, the Company will be found to be attacked by the next advices.

Suja Dowla has ſent an embaſſy to Calcutta, ſoliciting an offenſive and defenſive league with the Company, which, in the preſent ſituation of affairs, will not probably be refuſed.

The French forces have found themſelves obliged to return home from their iſlands of Mauritius and Bourbon, for want of proviſions. The fortifications of Pondicherry are in no repair, and the few troops that were there have deſerted.

The vigour which Madeorwa, the chief of the Mahrattoes, at preſent exhibits in his operations in all quarters of the empire, ſeems to promiſe ſuddenly to his nation the ſovereignty of Indoſtan. If therefore Hyder Ali, our only barrier, is deſtroyed, we have only 300,000 horſe to contend with, to oppoſe their devaſtations, and defend, even on the coaſt, a frontier of 1500 miles in length. Bengal is more ſafe, from its ſituation; though Shaw Allum is now, by the aid of the Mahrattoes, placed on the throne of Delhi.

In the month of July laſt, a French ſhip came into the road of Madras. The commander was in debt; and he mortgaged his veſſel for a part of her value to obtain money to clear himſelf. Mr. Whittle, a member of the council, was the perſon who advanced the money, to the amount of 4000 pagodas: he therefore ſent a perſon on board the ſhip to take charge of her till he was paid, and the mortgage redeemed. The Frenchman went, a few nights after, on board, and, ſlipping his cable, went out to ſea.---Mr. Whittle, upon this, applied to Sir John Lindſay, who gave an armed force, under Mr. Whittle's direction. The party conſiſted of an officer and twelve men. They ſet out in a veſſel, overtook the ſhip upon the high ſeas, boarded her, and ſtruck the French colours. Mr. Law, and the French in India, conſider this as a declaration of hoſtilities, there being goods on board the ſhip belonging to merchants in Pondicherry. The correſpondence is hot between Admiral Harland and the French Governor. The Court of France are informed of the whole, in the moſt ſtriking colours; and if the French have really any deſigns on the Eaſt-Indies, this will ſerve them as a plauſible pretext.

On Thurſday laſt was held the annual General Court of the Hon. Artillery Company, for the choice of their Chiefs, Officers, Court of Aſſiſtants, &c. for the enſuing year, when Sir Robert Ladbroke was re-choſen Preſident, Sir Richard Glynn, Vice-Preſident, and Sir William Stephenſon, Treaſurer; James Townſend, Eſq; and John Sawbridge, Eſq; Generals; John Wilkes, Eſq; and Frederick Bull, Eſq; Lieutenant Generals; Major Miller, Adjutant; Lieutenant Keene, Engineer; and alſo 24 elective Aſſiſtants. A poll was demanded againſt James Townſend and John Sawbridge, Eſqrs. and alſo againſt Major Mitchell, Major Cooke, Major Miller, Lieutenant Keene, and againſt the 24 elective Aſſiſtants; which poll is ordered to be taken on Thurſday next, at the Armory. There were eight Aldermen preſent on the occaſion.

Laſt Saturday 770l. were ſubſcribed at the Chapter Coffee-houſe, for reducing the price of proviſions, which, together with former ſubſcriptions, amount to 9500l. and upwards.

It is certain that very diſagreeable advices are arrived from the Eaſt-Indies. Our people having diſcovered that there was a treaty of alliance between the French and the King of Tanjour, hoſtile to the Engliſh, they have taken an opportunity to attack that Prince, and are actually beſieging the capital of his country. Tanjour is one of the fineſt provinces of the Eaſt; it is as large as Bengal, and much richer, having many gold mines, and all the diamonds. But it is not probable that the natives, who are acquainted with our oppreſſions, will ſubmit to our government. A greater power than we can oppoſe, may be collected, and it is feared, will be employed againſt us. Leagues between the country Princes and the Court of Delhi are forming, in order to diſpoſſeſs us of Bengal at leaſt; and if whiſpers are true, ſeveral very intelligent perſons belonging to the Company, confeſs the ſituation of our affairs in the Eaſt-Indies, to be very precarious, if not dangerous.

Yeſterday Mr. Sullivan moved the Houſe of Commons for leave to bring in a bill to regulate the proceedings in the Courts of Juſtice in Bengal. It is propoſed, to aboliſh the Mayor's Court entirely: to appoint a Chief Juſtice with a ſalary of 8000l. per annum, and three Puiſne Judges with each 4000l. per annum, an Attorney General, &c. the proceedings to be by information and anſwer, without a Jury; and theſe lawyers to be appointed by the King. The appeal to be to the Governor and Council of Bengal, and the dernier appeal to the King and Council here.

This motion brought on a debate upon India affairs in general. Several gentlemen ſpoke, particularly Lord Clive, who, in a ſenſible ſpeech, which laſted two hours and an half, gave a narrative and juſtification of his conduct. The debate laſted till eleven o'clock, when the motion to bring in the bill was agreed to, without a diviſion.

Lord Mansfield and Mr. Wedderburne are to draw up the bill, and to be aſſiſted by Lord Mansfield's nephew, Sir John Lindſay, who is juſt arrived from India, ſuppoſed to be at leaſt 200,000l. richer than when he went.

A correſpondent ſays, though the laudable gentlemen, aſſociated for obtaining relief in the matter of Subſcription, have loſt (though honourably) their firſt attempt, they are not in the leaſt afraid of obtaining relief in another mode.

We can aſſure the public, that a bill is prepared by his Grace the Duke of Manchaſter and Mr. Charles Fox, to repeal the Marriage Act.

The Earl of Hillſborough gave notice a few days ſince, in the Houſe of Lords, that he had an important motion to make in the courſe of a few days, relating to the preſent critical ſituation of affairs in America.

As there is not a yard of ſuperfine cloth manufactured in England without a certain portion of Spaniſh wool, it is recommended to the Government whether it would not be a judicious meaſure to encourage the propagation of ſheep in America, as the wool of thoſe animals there is even finer than the Spaniſh, and may be had in exchange for the manufactures of England.

APRIL 2. The following is an account of the origin of the riots in the county of Antrim, in Ireland: "ABOUT the end of the year 1770, the Earl of Donnegal, who is proprietor of a great eſtate in that country, granted a leaſe of all his lands, at the old rent, (which was very low) to Meſſrs. Gregg and Cunningham, of Belfaſt, for which, it is ſaid, he received a large premium. Theſe gentlemen began to raiſe the rents on the farmers, though not unreaſonably, which ſo provoked them, that in January 1771, a great multitude of people came into Belfaſt on a Sunday night about ſeven o'clock, ſome with fire arms, others with pitchforks, &c. and brought with them a gallows and ropes to hang Gregg and Cunningham; but they, being timely informed of the intention of the mob, had fled; the rabble, diſappointed in not finding them, threatened to ſet fire to their houſes, unleſs the three Juſtices of the Peace, who were then in the barracks under the protection of two companies of the Royal Highlanders, would ſet at liberty two rioters confined there the day before. This demand not being immediately complied with, they ſet fire to the houſes, went to the barracks, and fired on the ſoldiers, but, as I am informed, did not hurt any; the fire was returned, by order of the magiſtrates, and two of the mob killed. The ſoldiers afterwards took many of them priſoners, who were tried, but the Jury durſt not bring them in guilty. This cauſed an act of Parliament to be paſſed, empowering Government to try the northern inſurgents in Dublin."

A letter from Dublin, dated March 26, ſays, "THE defeat of the regular troops by the northern inſurgents has thrown us into the utmoſt conſternation. Buſineſs in general, but more particularly the linen, is entirely at a ſtand, the people of Ulſter carrying on more of that manufacture than all the kingdom beſide. Their former riſings under the name of Hearts of Oak, were on account of tythes, when the clergy were obliged to take ſhelter within the walls of Derry; now, under that of Hearts of Steel, by reaſon of the dearneſs of proviſions, and the oppreſſions of the landholders. What this country is to expect from the diſſenſions of Parliament, riſings of the White Boys, Hearts of Steel, &c. God only knows."

The Earl of Chatham, we hear, purpoſes to go to Spaw for the recovery of his health, and it is ſaid that before his return from the continent, he will ſee the Court of Berlin, where there is little doubt of his being a moſt acceptable viſitor.

A parliamentary enquiry into any thing is not more neceſſary than into the ſtate of our northern colonies, who are now our profeſſed rivals in navigation and manufactures. Thoſe parts of America alone are worth attention which produce ſtaples different from our own, and are in no likelihood of becoming detrimental either to our merchants or artificers.

One Dankaert, a Dutchman, who had engroſſed a conſiderable quantity of corn, near Newport, in Flanders, was, on the 15th day of laſt month, ſeized by a numerous mob, who pulled down his houſe, after dividing his corn and other proviſions, and carried him down to the ſea-coaſt, where they tied his hands behind him, and put him into a ſmall old fiſhing-boat, and towed him out to ſea, where they left him to die that death, which, they ſaid, he had been the means of inflicting upon ſeveral of his neighbours.

APRIL 5. The amount of the public debts ſtanding out on the 5th of January laſt, was 127,497,619l. 8s. 2d. 1-4; and that of the annual intereſts or other charges payable for the ſame, 4,526,392l. 8s. 8d.

We hear that his Majeſty allowed a certain General officer, whoſe trial before a Court Martial has been lately determined, a permiſſion to reſign, but the General refuſed it; and ſome from that circumſtance imagine he will be able to prove the charge againſt him a ſcandalous aſperſion.

The reſidence of the Judges to be ſent out to India will be at Calcutta; an Attorney-General and other ſubordinate officers are alſo to be ſent out; and as the appointments reſt entirely in the Crown, with a diſcretionary power of removals, the whole property of the Eaſt-India Company becomes immediately dependant on the Royal prerogative. This enlarges the power of the Crown to a prodigious degree, and throws the weight of Bengal, Orixa, and Bahar, into the ſcale of adminiſtration.

On Thurſday the gentlemen applying for a civil eſtabliſhment on the Ohio, up in the country of the Ilinois Indians, were heard before the Board of Trade, but it is not thought that the meaſure will be adopted, though above 10,000 people are now ſettled in a ſtate of voluntary ſociety.
